
COMMUNITY WORKSHOP ON MAY 25:
THE COUNTY OF ORANGE ZONING CODE UPDATE: “ORANGE IS THE NEW GREEN”

Residents, property owners, business owners and other interested parties:

The County of Orange is embarking on a comprehensive update to the County’s Zoning Code to incorporate sustainable best practices which are intended to improve the quality of life in our unincorporated communities and you are invited to participate in this process. You are welcome to attend a Community Workshop being held during the Orange County Planning Commission Special Meeting scheduled for May 25, 2016 from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. At this workshop, attendees will learn more about the “Orange Is the New Green” Zoning Code Update project and have the opportunity to ask questions and provide input on the recommendations being considered to make the County’s Zoning Code “green.”

Information regarding the “Orange is the New Green” Zoning Code Update project can be found on the County’s website at: <http://ocplanning.net/planning/projects>. This information includes the recently completed “Orange is the New Green” Code Analysis, Assessment and Best Practices Report. This report discusses the current status of the County’s Zoning Code, best practices utilized by other local jurisdictions, and recommendations on which of these best practices should be incorporated into the County’s Zoning Code.

The Community Workshop scheduled for May 25, 2016, 6:00 to 8:00 p.m., will be held at: 2301 N. Glassell Street, Orange, Conference Room 1A. We look forward to working with members of the community on this very exciting project and hope you can attend.

We would appreciate your RSVP if you are planning to attend the Community Workshop. Just reply to this email. Thank you.
