Exhibit 1

3.0 Bridlewood Residential (BWR) District

3.1 Purpose and Intent

The Bridlewood Residential District is established to provide for the development and maintenance of low density detached single-family residential neighborhoods in steep hillside areas in such a manner that generous open space areas are featured.

3.2 Uses Permitted

Per the Residential Estates (Planned Development) District regulations: Zoning Code sections 7-9-68 and 7-9-110.

3.3 Site Development Standards

Per the Residential Estates (Planned Development) District regulations: Zoning Code sections 7-9-68 and 7-9-110.

3.4 Special Provisions

a. The maximum number of dwelling units for this District shall be 283.

b. The minimum amount of open space dedicated to the County in fee and/or easement shall be 71%.

c. Prior to the approval of a tentative subdivision map that creates residential building sites, an area plan addressing the entire district shall be approved.

d. A preliminary grading permit may be issued in compliance with the Grading and Excavation Code subsequent to the approval of an area plan and tentative tract map that creates residential building sites. The Grading Official shall require a performance bond prior to the issuance of the grading permit.

e. Prior to the issuance of any building permits for residential structures, a use permit shall be approved by the Planning Commission per Zoning Code section 7-9-150.
